

Mathematics

Reading

Why do buses come in threes? by Rob Eastaway and Jeremy Wyndam

The Hidden Mathematics of Everyday Life.

Power in Numbers: The Rebel Women of Mathematics by Talithia Williams

The Rebel Women of Mathematics. Read about female mathematicians throughout history.

Equations that changed the World by Ian Stewart

Read 17 equations that changed the World.

Humble Pi – a comedy of maths errors by Matt Parker

Real life stories about how maths goes wrong with real world consequences.

The Man Who Loved Only Numbers by Paul Hoffman

The Story of Paul Erdős and the search for mathematical truth.

The Simpsons and Their Mathematical Secrets by Simon Singh

See how a writing team of mathematicians include mathematics within this popular animation.

The Music of the Primes by Marcus Du Sautoy

Why an unsolved problem in mathematics matters.

Significant Figures by Professor Ian Stewart

Lives and works of trailblazing mathematicians. History of many mathematicians and their influences on modern society.

Hello World: How to be Human in the Age of the Machine by Dr Hannah Fry

You are accused of a crime. Who would you rather determine your fate – a human or a machine?