

Political cartoons competition

Entries are invited for the Political cartoons competition, with the opportunity to win an iPod Touch donated by John Lewis and have your work exhibited in the Michaelhouse centre.

The competition will be judged by the acclaimed political cartoonist Steve Bell.

Entry requirements:

Themes: 'Representations of political leaders' and 'Political behaviour.'
Draw either a single image cartoon or cartoon strips up to a maximum size of A3.

Entrants must be 15 years old and above

Deadline: 16 October

Please post entries to: Cambridge Festival of Ideas, The Pitt Building,
Trumpington Street, Cambridge, CB2 1RP

Please include your name, age, telephone number and postal address.

21 October - 1 November 2009

Free events for all ages
Discussions and debates

Festival of Ideas

For more information visit www.cambridgefestivalofideas.org