

ART - TEXTILES Personal Learning Checklist Year 10

Remember to test yourself by doing an exam question!

Start of Course Work. 60%		R	A	G
Autumn Term- Self Distortion Samples and Techniques.	AO1- Critical understanding
	I can research and develop my own responses to textile designers, looking specially at abstract and distortion
	AO2- Creative making
	I can develop and be safe with different textile methods and techniques. I can use different materials and apply them to a series of different themes.
	AO3- Reflective Recording
	I can record and reflect on my personal ideas and make informed choices about successes in my work.
Spring Term- Figures in a Setting.	AO4- Personal Presentation
	I can present a body of work that shows the development of visual skills and self-reflection.
	AO1- Critical understanding
	I can research and explore artists and designers that use reflection in their work.
	AO2- Creative making
	I can develop and use different materials and techniques that show reflection and texture within my work looking at recreating shapes and pattern.
Summer Term- Reflection and Distortion	AO3- Reflective Recording
	I can record and reflect on my personal ideas. Showing the potential of outcomes through informed reasoning.
	AO4- Personal Presentation
	I can present a body of work that includes and shows personal development of ideas through materials and techniques.
	AO1- Critical understanding
	I can research and explore designers and artists that use distortion in their art and choose my own artists for inspiration
	AO2- Creative making
	I can develop specific techniques and use and mix different materials and techniques to show distortion in my work.
	AO3- Reflective Recording
	I can record and reflect on my personal ideas, showing clear developments of decisions.
	AO4- Personal Presentation
	I can present a body of work that shows how research and material play has developed into outcomes.			