

History A Level - Personal Learning Checklist

Unit 2 English Revolution

English Revolution

R	A	G
---	---	---

Charles' Early Parliaments 1625-29	The legacy of James I
	The Divine Right of Kings
	Charles 1625-29 – financial tensions
	Charles 1625-29 – religious tensions
	Charles 1625-29 – parliamentary opposition
	The dismissal of parliament in 1629
Personal Rule 1629-1640	The Personal Rule - finance
	The Personal Rule - religion
	The Personal Rule – Policy of Thorough
	The Personal Rule – advisors (including Ireland)
Crisis! 1637-40	The Bishops Wars
	The recall of parliament in 1640
Crisis to Conflict 1640-2	Conflicts between Crown and Parliament 1640-1
	The outbreak of War in 1642
The First Civil War 1642-46	How did people choose sides in the English Civil War?
	Cavalier army strengths and weaknesses
	Royalist army strengths and weaknesses
	Military leaders in the ECW
	Key battles and turning points in the ECW
	Why did the King lose the civil war?
The Search for Settlement 1646-1649	The rise of radicalism
	The politicisation of the army
	The Levellers and the Putney Debates
	Why was there a second civil war
	The events of the second civil war
	Prides Purge
	The trial of Charles I
The Commonwealth (1649-53)	The execution of Charles I
	The third civil war (see also OC in Scotland)
	The problems facing the Commonwealth
	Cromwell in Ireland
	Cromwell in Scotland
	The threat posed to the Commonwealth by radical groups
	The Rump Parliament
The Cromwellian Protectorate (1653-1658)	The Nominated Assembly
	The Instrument of Government
	The first Protectorate Parliament
	Challenges facing Cromwell
	The Rule of the Major Generals
	The second Protectorate Parliament
The Vacuum of Power 1658-60	The Humble Petition and Advice
	Richard Cromwell and the third Protectorate Parliament
	The Committee of Safety
The Restoration 1660	The events of the Restoration
	Who were the key leaders who brought about Restoration?
	Legacy of the English Revolution			