Consciousness & The Brain

Watch Consciousness & The Brain by John Searle at TEDxCERN

John Searle one of the world's great philosophers of mind and language, has spent fifty years stimulating thinking around the world. What he says about consciousness as a biological phenomenon will challenge you!

Plato

Watch Alex Gendler's interpretation of Plato's Cave Allegory

Plato's "Allegory of the Cave" is one of the most well-known philosophical concepts in history. As such, it only makes sense that numerous filmmakers would try to incorporate this philosophy into their movies. But what exactly is it? And why does it work so well in the context of filmmaking? We'll look at this concept as well as several films that have incorporated it excellently. It's time to find the sun.

Religious Experience

Watch the Five Major religions on TED ED

It's perfectly human to grapple with questions, like 'Where do we come from?' and 'How do I live a life of meaning?' These existential questions are central to the five major world religions - and that's not all that connects these faiths. John Bellaimey explains the intertwined histories and cultures of Hinduism, Judaism, Buddhism, Christianity and Islam.
