All scripts sent by the school by email incur no cost, if a hard copy is requested the school will charge £5 per paper for printing and administration costs.

¹ This service is not available to individual candidates

² This service is to request a copy of script to support a non-priority review of marking

³ Where a copy of a post-review of marking script is required, this should normally be applied for at the same time as the review of marking request to meet the relevant non-priority RoR service deadline
