

AMAZING LOCKDOWN WORK

YEAR 13

Alex Liney for making a continuous extraordinary effort in his studies and producing an excellent NEA project, has the mind to do extraordinary things at university and beyond, we wish Alex the best of luck. Mr Smith & Mr Bowen - Computer Science

James Norman for always reading around the subject and asking questions that pushed even our subject knowledge in some areas. Always on the ball and providing excellent discussions in the classroom. Will exceed in any field he chooses, and we wish James the best of luck. Mr Smith & Mr Bowen - Computer Science

YEAR 12

Gwilym Andrew for excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Jess Ball has consistently submitted work to an exceptional standard and her contributions during video lesson discussions have demonstrated a secure understanding of the text. Miss Emery - English

Jake Ben is always prompt with work, if not ahead of schedule, consistently completes work to a high standard despite not having the advantage of coming in. Mrs Shaw - Science

Josh Benge's commitment to consolidating and extending his progress during lockdown has been outstanding in English. I am so impressed with how he has risen to a really challenging situation and excelled. Well done Josh! Mrs Ogbechie - English

Jake Bycroft for excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Ali Campbell for excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Niamh Card for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley - Social Services

Scarlet Dalrymple for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley - Social Services

Jacob Dear for outstanding effort in the face of many technical challenges, tackling unknowns without fear, solving problems with determination and finding innovative solutions. Tireless. Mr Smith & Mr Bowen - Computer Science

Nico Erulug for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley - Social Services

Haydn Gadenne for consistent effort in English Literature - producing written work of a high standard for "Hamlet" and "Atonement" every week of lockdown. Mrs Penning - English

Ellie Garnham for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley - Social Services

Amy Gatward for consistent excellent work for A Level Music. Mrs Cooke - Music

Lily Gipson who has persevered in the face of all sorts of difficulties and is still up to date and on top of all her work. Well done Lily! Mrs Shaw - Science

Jasmine Glass Parker for consistent effort in English Literature - producing written work of a high standard for "Hamlet" and "Atonement" every week of lockdown. Mrs Penning - English

Felicity Healy has shown herself to be a brilliant example of an A-Level Literature student and her dedication to the subject has continued during a difficult time. Felicity has gone the extra mile by reading several additional texts to support her knowledge of American Literature. Miss Emery - English. Felicity has been so committed to her independent pursuit of knowledge for Hamlet. I am so impressed by her proactive stance and dedication to her progress. Mrs Ogbechie - English

Tara-Jan Heyburn for consistent effort in English Literature - producing written work of a high standard for "Hamlet" and "Atonement" every week of lockdown. Mrs Penning - English

Brynn Hill has overcome challenging circumstances during the "In the News" project; working so far out of his comfort zone. He has developed a fantastic narrative to his work and explored new processes to refine his skill set. We have been really impressed with his project theme. Mrs Treen - Art

Mitchell Hodgson has always been a fantastic example of an A-Level Literature student and his work during lockdown has been no exception. Dedicated, hard-working, and always going the extra mile. Miss Emery - English. Well done Mitch for completing work of a very high quality in Government and politics. Mrs Dearnaley - Social Sciences. Mitch has worked tirelessly throughout his Sixth Form studies and this includes during school closure. Always the first to complete his politics work, he sets himself very high standards and these have not faltered because of remote learning – well done Mitch! Mr McLean - Politics

Georgia Hunt for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Emily Lawman for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Jason Lees for excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Vlad Lutsenko for excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Rheeya Makwana has demonstrated a real aptitude to learning, staying on top of all tasks, responding to all emails with courtesy. Mrs Olsen- Science. Thank you, Rheeya, for your excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Scott Marshall's commitment to independent consolidation and extension during lockdown has been utterly outstanding. Scott's work ethic is second to none, and he should be hugely proud of himself. Mrs Ogbechie - English

Pierce Mendes' work throughout lockdown has been excellent! His classwork and formal pieces of written work are always to an exceptional standard and always submitted on time. Furthermore, his astute contributions during video lessons demonstrate his advanced knowledge of the text. Miss Emery - English

Catherine Miles for demonstrating a positive attitude, asking salient questions, and completing independent work of a high quality in Criminology. Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Molly Orr-Love for her outstanding topic on Nick Cave. Particularly outstanding because it was a topic that had just been introduced before lockdown. She analysed a film that she hadn't watched, included comparison to a later documentary on the same subject and compared film-making theory from two directors that she has learned independently. Mr Lloyd - Film

Charlotte Orugboh Gearing for continued interest in, and quality of work in Sociology. Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Elsa Paoluzi Cusani who started the Sociology course later but has since worked tirelessly to learn the topics we study - a budding sociologist in the making! Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Megan Perry for great progress on their Oxbridge Personal Statements! (Mr Wheeley, Oxbridge Co-ordinator). Megan - for being always on time, if not early. Always correct and self-aware of difficulties making her really easy to teach remotely. Mrs Shaw - Science

Jan Reigo for continued interest in, and quality of work in Sociology. Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Lucas Rinaldo for consistent excellent work for A Level Music. Mrs Cooke - Music

Talulah Royston Battaglia for continued interest in, and quality of work in Sociology. Mrs Dearnaley – Social Services

Rosie Shepherd for consistent effort in English Literature - producing written work of a high standard for "Hamlet" and "Atonement" every week of lockdown. Mrs Penning - English

Amy Smith for great progress on their Oxbridge Personal Statements! (Mr Wheeley, Oxbridge Co-ordinator)

Joseph Thacker who took on probably the most complex of all technical environments in Unity, effectively climbed a mountain in terms of new skills acquired, never lost heart and has produced an excellent online game showing skills way beyond that normally expected at A-level. Mr Smith & Mr Bowen – Computer Science

Ryan Ward for excellent communication, excellent efforts on tests and for showing resilience and independence of an exceptionally high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Lucas Watford is always prompt with work, if not ahead of schedule, and consistently completes work to a high standard despite not having the advantage of coming in. Mrs Shaw - Science

Chloe Wiseman has, through hard work and focus on developing her practical skills, produced some beautifully intricate 3D work exploring embroidery and wire. We have looked forward to seeing her work progress during each week of the "In the News" project. Chloe, you should be so proud of the highly refined processes you have managed to undertake during this challenging time. Your work ethic is a credit to you. Mrs Treen – Art

YEAR 11

Olly Pearce a Year 11 student who has grasped the opportunity and completed the transition tasks to an excellent standard - we look forward to welcoming him to the Science dept as a Sixth Former. Mrs Olsen - Science

YEAR 10

Yawar Ali has always been prompt and on time with work and has achieved results that are better than I would expect under normal circumstances. Clearly, Yawar has developed some excellent independent learning strategies that will benefit him greatly moving forward into Year 11. Well done! Mrs Shaw - Science

Joel Aston for consistently working well throughout school closure, and always submitting work. Mr Moody - Geography

Arron Benn for working really hard on the inheritance topic in Biology which resulted in an almost perfect end of topic test SCORE. Mrs Parkes – Biology

Scarlett Bloomsmar's commitment to consolidating and extending her progress during lockdown has been outstanding in English. I am so impressed with how she has risen to a really challenging situation and excelled. Well done Scarlett! Mrs Ogbechie – English

Chloe Butler for going above and beyond her GCSE studies and embracing concepts outside of the normal curriculum. For never letting a topic beat her and seeking mastery in all that she does. Mr Woodfine - Maths

Chloe Cade has worked with the same enthusiasm and commitment as she would do in school and has shown true dedication to her subject by seeking advice and support when needed, attending all Zoom sessions and submitting work on time. A great start to your coursework - Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Alyssa Clarke for working really hard on the inheritance topic in Biology which resulted in an almost perfect end of topic test score. Mrs Parkes - Biology. Alyssa has made continued effort and produced good work in DT. Mrs Stokes (DT)

Em Cochrane for excellent organisation and hard work in French. Mrs Roberts - MFL

Evelyn Davies for consistently working well throughout school closure, and always submitting work. Mr Moody - Geography

Liam Drew-McKay for working really hard on the inheritance topic in Biology which resulted in an almost perfect end of topic test score. Mrs Parkes - Biology

Luke Duncan has always been on time with work and has achieved results that are better than I would expect under normal circumstances. Clearly, Luke has developed some excellent independent learning strategies that will benefit him greatly moving forward into Year 11. Well done! Mrs Shaw - Science

Megan Edney for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Finlay Evans for consistently working well throughout school closure, and always submitting work. Mr Moody - Geography

Lucy Greenhalgh has worked with the same enthusiasm and commitment as she would do in school and has shown true dedication to her subject by seeking advice and support when needed, attending all Zoom sessions and submitting work on time. A great start to your course work - Well done. Mrs Cater - Art

James Grist for consistently working well throughout school closure, and always submitting work. Mr Moody Geography

Jonathan Jarvis for consistent great work produced in English and brilliant attitude to the work he has done. Miss Waters - English

Well done, Jonathan, for showing dedication and engagement in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Ethan Jenner has worked with the same enthusiasm and commitment as he would do in school and has shown true dedication to his subject by seeking advice and support when needed, attending all Zoom sessions and submitting work on time. A great start to coursework. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Alice Lawrence for excellent organisation and hard work in French. Mrs Roberts - MFL

Callum Lees for excellent organisation and hard work in French. Mrs Roberts - MFL

Issy Legge has worked so hard on refining the quality of her primary images. These are fantastic and we can't wait to see how her Details project progresses. Well done Issy! Mrs Treen - Art. Issy has made a brilliant effort to keep the Maths improvement going with great regular communication. Mrs Carr - Maths

Luke Lizardo for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Liam Marsh for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Isabella Ospina for constant effort and accurate answers in Spanish during lockdown and meeting deadlines every week! Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Bethan Parry-Jones for outstanding work on Trigonometry. Bethan has also been superb at emailing work regularly throughout this term. Mrs Carr - Maths. Bethan has made continued effort in Spanish during lockdown and has met deadlines every single week! Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL. Bethan has consistently worked well throughout school closure, always submitting her work. Mr Moody Geography

Eleanor Pinkerton who has worked with the same enthusiasm and commitment as she would do in school, showing true dedication to the subject by seeking advice and support when needed. Attending all Zoom sessions and submitting work on time. A great start to coursework. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art. Eleanor has made continued effort and produced great coursework- especially in this difficult time. Mrs Stokes - DT

Will Pook for consistently working well throughout school closure, and always submitting work. Mr Moody Geography

Jack Screaton has always been on time with work and has achieved results that are better than I would expect under normal circumstances. Clearly, Jack has developed some excellent independent learning strategies that will benefit him greatly moving forward into Year 11. Well done! Mrs Shaw - Science

Samuel Stephenson for exemplary work on Anglo-Saxon and Norman England GCSE Unit. Mr Westbury - History

Lewis Tembey for producing an excellent program and written report for the Year 10 programming project in preparation for the NEA in Year 11. Mr Smith & Mr Bowen - Computer Science. Lewis has created fantastic revision and review timelines for Warfare GCSE Unit. Mr Westbury - History. Lewis is always prompt with work, communicative and ready with feedback, making it easier for me to tailor how I produce work to better suit the students. Thank you, Lewis!! Mrs Shaw - Science

Brendon Thrift-Sommers for making such a good effort and trying really hard to complete all his coursework to the best of his ability and checking in when he was unsure. Mrs Stokes - DT

James Turner for a fantastic effort during lockdown, but particularly for an amazing answer on William the Conqueror's creation of the Marcher Earldoms in the aftermath of 1066. Well done James - superb historical analysis! Mr Wheeley - History. Well done James for consistently working well throughout school closure, and always submitting work. Mr Moody Geography

YEAR 9

Daryl Aldridge for hard work and dedication in geography during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

Jessica Bambridge for working so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and producing some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Ella Bolam for great work on Seneca. Mrs Hodges - Science

Orlaith Chamberlain who received the runner up award with Huntingdon Community Youth Awards for the NHS artwork she did back in May "The Super Nurse". Ms Daniell- Head of Year 9

George Clarke for a great presentation of cultural work - with music included! Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Hannah Conal-Childs for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Sarah Dear who has completed over three hours of Seneca German assignments in the last week scoring an average of 89%. What an amazing effort and achievement. Well done Sarah! Mrs Tomkins - German

Sofia Dris' excellent communication over lockdown, sending in all her work and doing all tasks on time and to a high quality. Mrs Hodges - Science

Carly Evans for working so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and producing some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Amelia Goodway's excellent standard of work particularly on the latest assessment piece. Mrs Hodges - Science

Henry Harris for showing true resilience during the whole of lockdown. He has maintained his school timetable each day as much as he has been able to and completed all of the set work on Doodle to the best of his ability. Mrs Bierton. Henry has also been putting 110% effort into every piece of Chemistry work set. Always the first to open the work as soon as its online and first to complete. Well done Henry! Mrs Blick - Science

Keira Hatton for great communication as well as great work over lockdown. Mrs Hodges - Science

Skye Henderson has produced some excellent work in Biology demonstrating independent research skills. Mrs Olsen - Science

Ellouise Hepworth has produced great work over lockdown, good Seneca scores as well. Mrs Hodges - Science

Alex Hill for an excellent standard of work particularly on the latest assessment piece. Mrs Hodges - Science

Lucy Hucklesby for the excellent work produced over lockdown. Mrs Hodges - Science

Ollie Johnson's excellent effort with his German closure work, especially these past few weeks. Well Done! Mrs Tomkins - MFL

Maddie Jones for her positivity and excellent work ethic. Mrs Hodges - Science

Stella Leach for continued effort, standard of work and going above and beyond what was expected with some of the tasks. Mrs Stokes - DT

Joe Mason for consistently sending in quality work on time and communicating well over lockdown. Mrs Hodges - Science

Alice Masterton for working so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and producing some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

James Miles for excellent effort and attitude to work during lockdown. Mrs Wright - English

Auguste Mimaite has produced some outstanding sketchbook work with such high-quality recording in her research. Alongside this we have really enjoyed receiving her practical knitting project; such an amazing achievement outside of the classroom. We can't wait to see her final ideas for the texture project. Mrs Treen - Art

Olivia Mitchel for working so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and producing some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Isaac Morgan for hard work and dedication in geography during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

Flyn Morris for consistent good work on Seneca. Mrs Hodges - Science

Sophie Page for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Teegan Parnell for working so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and producing some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Adam Petts for achieving Rock Hero Status! Well done to Adam who has been practising and competing in Maths.

Mrs Corn - Maths. Adam - thank you for your professional pieces of work and meeting deadlines every week. Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Cedric Regalado for impressive, sustained effort and commitment with his French work. Despite some issues with IT access recently, he has kept up to date with all his work. Well done! Mrs Tomkins - MFL

Fiona Richardson for consistently completing work to a high standard across the whole lockdown period. Mr Tandy - German

Fiona has shown great dedication and engagement in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Emil Rinu Abraham has been working incredibly hard this term, attending all online lessons. He has been a real credit to himself during lockdown and made great progress! Mr Boyle - Maths

Dillon Runchman for excellent work on Seneca learning over lockdown. Mrs Hodges - Science

Emily Russel for working so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and producing some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Charlotte Smith for her continued effort in her science work, always submitting work on time and asking any relevant questions. Well done Charlotte! Mrs Blick - Science. Charlotte has been diligent and completed each piece of work to the very highest standard. Mrs Wright - English

Mark Smith for consistently completing work to a high standard across the whole lockdown period. Mr Tandy - German. Well done for baking an ApfelKuchen (apple cake) - I'm sure it tasted delicious! Mrs Tomkins - German

Rosie Ellen Spencer for her excellent work ethic, always completing work before deadlines are due. Mrs Hodges - Science
Well done Rosie Ellen for your hard work and dedication in geography during lockdown. Mr Moody – Geography. Rosie has worked so independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period and produced some excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Joe Sykes for excellent effort with German closure work, especially these past few weeks. Well Done! Mrs Tomkins - MFL

Josh Talbot for consistently completing work to a high standard across the whole lockdown period. Mr Tandy - German

Joao Teixeira for a superb RPE result, showing great knowledge and understanding of the unit studied during the lockdown and the course so far. Miss Palmer - RPE

Chloe Thien for great communication over lockdown and very high-quality work, both sent in and done on Seneca. Mrs Hodges - Science

Mrs Hodges - Science

Isaac Thorogood for good communication and great work over lockdown. Mrs Hodges - Science

Lauren Walker for an excellent standard of work particularly on the latest assessment piece. Mrs Hodges - Science

Natalie Wallace has shown great dedication in her studies in creative textiles, working independently and creatively throughout the lockdown period. Excellent creative outcomes. Well done! Mrs Cater - Art

Marcus Weston for consistently completing work to a high standard across the whole lockdown period. Mr Tandy – German

YEAR 8

Pippa Blencowe for dedication and engagement shown in History work over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Pippa has not missed one deadline since the start of the lockdown and religiously sends all the Spanish tasks requested every single week, and they are completed to great standards. Outstanding attitude! Mrs Solvar-Isida - MFL

Liam Conway for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Jasmine Cooper for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Blake Daniels for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody – Geography. Well done Blake for your sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Anna Dris for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

Ellie Green for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

George Hall for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody – Geography. Well done George for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Freya Howard for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Erik Hurinek for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

George Jordan for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Sienna King for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Emily Kett for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Joel Kurian for achieving Rock Hero Status! Joel has been practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Jasmine Lees for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Henry Mayer for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Jack McWilliams for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh – History

Paris Northrop for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh – History. Paris has completely embraced this lockdown by going the extra mile in Spanish and not only completing the work set but also the fun challenges even changing her phone settings to Spanish. Excellent attitude! Mrs Solvar-Isida - MFL

Dylan Parry-Jones has consistently scored 100% in Spanish weekly grammar quizzes. Outstanding effort! Mrs Solvar-Isida – MFL

Bobby Porter for having a go at some animation work ahead of iMedia in September. Not an easy skill to master and so having the motivation to give it a go and creating some excellent pieces is impressive! Well done! Mrs Shepherd – Computer Science

William Power for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh – History. William's creative writing piece was outstanding! The effort and time he put into it was clear and the end result was an original, imaginative, and successful narrative. He went above and beyond! Miss Emery – English. Thank you, William, for a truly fantastic piece of creative writing Mrs Penning - English

Nellie Purser for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Katie Pye for sustained hard work in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Ava Ramoutar for sustained hard work in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Hunni Roberts-Law for every bit of work set completed, in detail, and submitted on time. Mr Tandy – English. Hunni has submitted some outstanding pieces of work. Her understanding in Philosophy whilst able to look at different points of view and discuss without the class format is incredible. She has also written poetry that has been breath-taking and moving. Well done! Mrs Field - RPE

Keira Routledge for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Emma Screatton for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Sol Scott has shown great dedication to his Spanish work and this has led to the best improvement I've seen during lockdown in his weekly grammar tests. Well done! Mrs Solvar-Isida – MFL. Sol has completed everything to the best of his ability as well as asking for additional work. Mrs Olsen - Science

Tom Sharpe for consistent great work produced in English and brilliant attitude. Well done! Miss Waters - English

Gabriella Simonis for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL. Gabriella has regularly submitted high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

Ned Smith for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Alice Steward for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

Martha Stonestreet for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody - Geography

Pavanilaa Subramaniyam for regularly submitting high quality geography work during lockdown. Mr Moody – Geography. Pavanilaa has produced high-quality drawings responding to the wonderland she has created in her summer project. Within both your artist research and the drawing of your scene, your tonal pencil skills have been well refined. Fantastic work! Mrs Treen – Art. Pavanilaa has worked exceptionally hard completing Maths work this half term; I am really proud of her! Mrs Osborne – Maths. Fantastic work Pavanilaa on the struggle for Civil Rights in America. Mr Westbury – History

Tara Taylor for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Malachy Warham for producing some beautifully presented work demonstrating independent research skills. Mrs Olsen - Science

Holly Watts for dedication and engagement shown in History over the whole of lockdown. Mr Leigh - History

Zanda Wood-Eeles for consistently applying herself, for working so well independently and moving her learning on to a whole new level. Mr Woodfine - Maths

YEAR 7

Jared Aldridge for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Kieran Allen for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Sam Andrew for continued effort, particularly the pop-up card mechanism test pieces and final cards. Mrs Stokes – DT

Ekaterina Arlow has produced some high-quality paintings within the fantasy world that she has researched and developed. Her skills are of an exceptionally high standard, I really hope that Art is an avenue she continues to explore during her time at Hinchingsbrook School. Well done! Mrs Treen – Art. Katya has produced and submitted some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Caitlin Barraclough for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT. Caitlin has made sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger – MFL. Caitlin has achieved Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Alex Bateman for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT. Well done Alex for engaging in the COVID-19 project. Mrs Olsen - Science

Ruby Brace for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Ruby has made continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT

Sam Brasher for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT. Sam has made a sustained effort in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Caspar Bridge for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Cerys Brown for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

James Bruce for constant dedication and engagement in Spanish during lockdown. Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Jasmine Burroughs for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Joshua Carr has been very determined to get on with his work 🤖 Mr Milner – Head of Year 7

Zhi Cheng Xu for achieving Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Lucas Cheung for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Jessica Clark for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Joe Clarke for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Lucas Conie for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT

Marcel Czura for incredible commitment to his History work whilst at home. Mr Westbury – History. Marcel has worked extremely hard and this shows in every piece of work submitted. Marcel always looks at how he can improve his answers. Mrs Field – RPE

Lia Dear always starts her emails with asking how I am and sharing what she has been working on. If I ask her to feed forward a piece of work, she does so before the date given to complete. She has been consistent in her approach to learning and even though she isn't in class, I can see her smiling as she reads her emails with the positive praise. Mrs Field – RPE

Harvey De'Ath-Stevens for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT

Lola De Cozar Rushforth for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Isabella Dovey for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT. Wonderful baking, Isabella, and continuing to learn a new instrument and consistently trying her best with all aspects of her school. So impressive for a Year 7 to be that self-motivated. Mr Milner (Head of Year 7)

Imogen Drage for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Harry Emeleus for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT. Unfailing enthusiastic effort and excellent pieces of work Harry. Mrs Penning - English

Jessica Emmerson for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes – DT

Amie Evans for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Aidan Gilbert for constant dedication and engagement in Spanish during lockdown. Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Bethany Gilfoyle for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Elizabeth Grist for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Ruby Jordan for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Jack Hayhoe for fantastic work done whilst at home, showing creativity and commitment to his studies. Mr Westbury - History

Jessica Kokosinska for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Arnav Krishnan for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography. For sustained effort and achievement in French. Well done Arnav! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Thomas Land for his excellent PowerPoint and written work on present tense work. Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Bridget Lea for continued effort in DT. Mrs Stokes - DT

Jessica Legge for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL. Jessica - a phenomenal report on car colours and probabilities submitted this week. Mrs Carr - Maths

Alice Martin for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Sam Mayes for his culinary exploits during lockdown. Mr Milner - Head of Year 7

Rachel McCloy for spending her time learning a new gymnastics trick (she can touch her feet to her head in a handstand - very impressive!) Mr Milner - Head of Year 7

Finlee Nicholl-Smith for continued effort and great final board game design! Mrs Stokes - DT. Finlee has consistently scored 100% in the Spanish weekly review quizzes. Outstanding effort! Mrs Solvar-Isida - MFL. Thank you, Finlee, for your constant dedication and engagement in Spanish during lockdown. Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL

Kallum Nicholl-Smith for being a super star in Art, he has really impressed a lot of teachers with the way he has coped with lockdown, continuing to work hard. Mr Milner - Head of Year 7. Excellent poster on the regular verbs present tense in Spanish. Constant dedication and engagement in Spanish during lockdown - Well done Kallum! Mrs Melchor-Bailey - MFL. Great story board, Kallum. Mrs Akielan - Drama. Throughout lockdown, Kallum has approached all work set diligently. In Maths he has completed all his homework and lesson tasks set and always shown great participation in live lessons. Mrs Bierton

Oreva Onibere for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL. Oreva has achieved Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Orezi Onibere for achieving Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Esmee O'Shea for achieving Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Edward Parncutt for producing and submitting excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography. Well done Edward for your sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Joe Payne has been a delight during lockdown. If he's struggled to stay motivated, it has not shown in his work and has never failed to submit his work! Joe should be super proud of himself! Mrs Field - RPE. Well done Joe for consistently submitting excellent History work each week. Mrs Tandy - History. Well done for achieving Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Grace Pescud for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Isaac Power for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Daisy Presland for attendance at every weekly team meeting this half term, working super hard whilst there. Mrs Carr - Maths

Luca Quenet for fantastic attitude and application to his History work whilst at home. Mr Westbury - History

Molly Rider for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Zoe Roberts for "smashing" all of her work and then asking for more, completing lots of Tynker exercises and proving she is a clever and motivated young lady! Mrs Shepherd - Computer Science

Kian Rudderham for learning a lot about baking, and for sending in pictures of his creations. Mr Milner - Head of Year 7

Ayaan Shaikh for completing the Computer Science work set on Google Classrooms as soon as it was set and in an excellent level of detail - without requiring reminders or password resets. Mr Smith & Mr Bowen - Computer Science. Thank you, Ayaan, for consistently submitting excellent History work each week Mrs Tandy - History

Tom Sharpe for his 'can-do' attitude during lockdown. He has shown such pride in his work, submitting it regularly, and getting into work routines. Mr Milner - Head of Year 7. Well done Tom for attending every weekly team meeting this half term and working super hard whilst there. Mrs Carr - Maths

Harry Skinner for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Ruby Smith for working really hard and being very mature in her approach to learning. Mrs Bierton

Isaac Soper has been really proactive with his home learning; he has a timetable that he's following which incorporates breaks and free time to allow a good balance of work and rest. His motivation levels mean he is completing most of his work independently but is also contacting his teachers for guidance when required. Isaac's even been completing extra English and History work, demonstrating his positive attitude towards home learning and the situation we find ourselves in. Mr Milner - Head of Year 7

Kitty Sykes for attendance at every weekly team meeting this half term, working super hard whilst there. Mrs Carr - Maths

A Great puppet and puppet video Kitty. Mrs Akielan - Drama. Thank you, Kitty, for working hard and never giving up, despite the weight of lockdown and the school closure. Asking for more challenges and exceeding expectations. Mr Bowen - Computer Science

Xavier Thomas has worked incredibly hard throughout lockdown, and he has been very independent; managing his workload with very little help. He has also done everything he can to keep a peaceful and agreeable environment at home, by helping out with chores and he has even tried knitting! Mr Milner - Head of Year 7

Jack Thornton for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

James Tibble for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL. James has achieved Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Leah Wagstaff for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL. Leah has achieved Rock Hero Status! Well done for practising and competing in Maths. Mrs Corn - Maths

Tilly Wall for the quality of her closure work for History has been truly outstanding right throughout remote learning. The level of detail and the quality of presentation has been first class. Tilly, you must have spent hours gathering the evidence to complete the tasks, including the optional extension tasks. Mr McLean – History. Well done Tilly for continued effort. Mrs Stokes – DT

Chloe Webster for continued effort and great outcomes. Mrs Stokes – DT. Chloe has been an absolute star at home. I have seen her astounding work in all subjects! She has been cooking and baking, doing activities with her pets, and completing all her schoolwork to an amazing standard. I wish I still had this sort of motivation! Mr Milner – Head of Year 7. Well done Chloe for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Jack Weidisch for really high-quality work and taking great pride in it being well presented. Mrs Bierton

Kerensa Weston for producing and submitting excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody – Geography. Well done Kerensa for sustained effort and achievement in French. Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Jude Whiteley for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger - MFL

Bryony Wilkes for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Grace Wilson for producing and submitting some excellent work throughout the lockdown period. Mr Moody - Geography

Adam Woodthorpe for sustained hard work in French. Well done! Mrs Risbridger – MFL

Harry Wootton has often been the first to complete all his history assignments and the quality has been consistently high. An impressive effort, which reflects his general enthusiasm throughout Year 7. So well done Harry! Mr McLean - History