

Ramadan

You could support your Muslim friends by:

Taking an interest – ask why they are fasting

Don't make it awkward by apologising for eating around them – they expect that you will continue to do so

Do good deeds each day of the month of Ramadan

Donate to charity

Try fasting yourself, even just for a few hours, to show solidarity

Yourself Others Your School "A good friend not only cares about your relationship with them but also your relationship with Allah" – Saad Tasleem

Don't try and tempt them by offering them food
