

Black History Month @ HBK

October marks Black History Month in Britain – a time to help raise awareness and celebrate the achievements, history and contributions of black people, that often go unnoticed!

Below is a glimpse into some contributions Black individuals have made to British society throughout history

Black people form part of the Tudor Court

1507

Black soldiers
sign up to fight and protect fellow British Citizens

1914

Black people
help shape modern Britain

1950's to Now

African
soldiers defend England from attack

AD 43

Black people in Britain fight to bring justice and equality for all

1700 -1900

Black British
citizens rally
to help rebuild Britain

1945

Hard Work

High Standards

Kindness