

Did you know 250 million children and young people around the world are out of school, and 763 million adults are illiterate? Their right to education is being destroyed and it is unacceptable. It's time to transform education.

24th
January

International Day of Education

The quality of education varies for children around the world, with millions still deprived of this basic human right. The International Day of Education is a day to celebrate and advocate for access to education for all because education is a human right.