

FORTNIGHTLY
FOCUS

Human Rights Day

10 December 2025

This theme emphasises the importance of respecting human dignity and rights, as well as upholding international law to prevent atrocities like the Holocaust from ever happening again.

Jewish women and children from Subcarpathian Rus selected by the Nazi SS for death, walk toward the gas chambers of Auschwitz - Nazi Concentration and Death Camp (1940-1945).

Also serving as a reminder of the importance of safeguarding the memories of survivors and their stories, and to combat hatred, Holocaust distortion, and denial.

The theme for Human Rights Day 2025 is 'Holocaust Remembrance: Dignity, Rights, and International Law'.
Commemorating 80 years since the end of World War II.

